The most hated truth (David Wilkerson)

The Old Testament depicts the people of God as stubborn, unfaithful, and ignorant about what God is really like. Yet, the Spirit of God worked in their hearts to reveal as much of his true character as possible. So, despite their overall misunderstanding, they sometimes got “glimpses of truth.”. In this series, we will explore the most significant ways that the Spirit broke through in the Old Testament to give God’s people revelations of his true character and will.
